Life at C. C. H. S. Is a Unique Experience

a "Way of Life," and Not Just Preparation for the Future.

A Variety of Courses and Activities

Hasten Us Through a Busy Schedule.

Dedication

The ideal teacher is one who has more than a thorough knowledge of teaching. She is able to guide her students in accepting the challenges and responsibilities they will face throughout life.

At Chatham Central, we have such an ideal teacher. She devotes all her time and talents to her students. Her friendly, helpful advice and everlasting patience have won for her a special place in each of our hearts.

To you, Mrs. Betty Caviness, we express our love and gratitude with the dedication of our 1968 Centralia.

In Memory of

The boys who have died in Viet Nam.

Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul.
Matthew 10:28

A Decade of Progress

Shows Many Changes

Many changes have come about since the establishment of Chatham Central High School a decade ago. Not only has Central changed in size and appearance, but so have her students. Portrayed here are past and present features and attractions of our school. Hold on as we present on these pages everything from mini skirts and Beatle haircuts, to our new modern library.

Faculty and Administration

The teachers of C.H.S. begin each day at 8:00 A.M. guiding and directing their students toward building a sound foundation for the future. They meet the challenging demands of tomorrow by teaching specialized courses and giving individual aid to each student.

The guiding light of our teachers today gives us the strength and background to light our tomorrow.

Capable Leaders Guide Us

We could never express in words our sincere appreciation for the encouragement and understanding Mr. Alton Campbell, our principal, has given us this year.

Neither will we forget the friendly faces of Mrs. Shirley Gaines, the school secretary, Mrs. Marilyn Wilson and Mrs. Evelyn Harris, the teachers' aides. These four will remain a part of our cherished memories of Central.

"A Thing of Beauty Is a Joy Forever; Its Loveliness Increases; It Will Never Pass Into Nothingness." In the following pages you will be a witness to the beauty, joy, and accomplishments of the honored students at Chatham Central.

Sheryle Oldham

Chosen Valentine Sweetheart of '68

On February 9, 1968, twelve lovely girls, representing the home-rooms of the school, were presented in chapel. After a very close vote, the student body chose Sheryle Oldham, a senior, as their 1968 Valentine Sweetheart. The Maid-of-Honor was Lana James, a sophomore. The new Sweetheart and Maid-of-Honor were announced at the annual Valentine Dance, sponsored by the Student Council on February 10, 1968.

Sue Brown Captivates Title of Homecoming Queen

The homerooms and clubs of Central sponsored 15 girls to participate in the selection of the 1968 Homecoming Queen. Miss Sue Brown, a Senior representative, won the title on a penny-a-vote basis. Being an active member in school and one of our star basketball players, Sue shows a quality that makes her a deserving queen.

Janice Cockman Wins Coveted

Twelve charming candidates, sponsored by the homerooms, competed for the title, Miss Chatham Central 1968. A combination of beauty, charm, and poise were the reigning factors in the selection of the new queen. Possessing all these factors and many more, Miss Janice Cockman, a Senior candidate, was chosen by student vote.

Selection of Marshals Awards Achievement

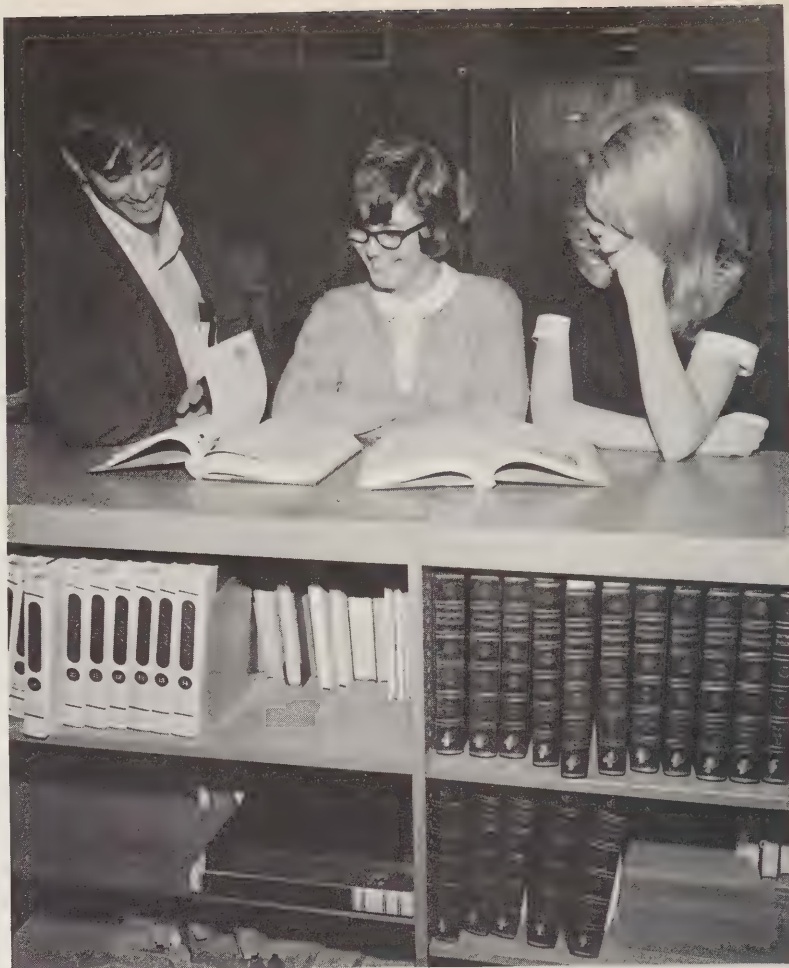

Marshals at C.C.H.S. are the ten juniors who have achieved the highest scholastic averages during the high school years. The chief marshal is, of course, the student with the highest average. Each student reaping this reward of effort and diligence is to be commended.

Eldean Talley, Chief Marshal

Jackie Walters, Janet Leonard, and Rita Gaines.

Carol Phillips, Cathy Hilliard, and Debbie Lawrence.

Hilda Gaines and Ronald Morgan. Not pictured, Rodney Hackney.

Activities

A complete education involves two different kinds of learning. One is, of course, learning from books. The other is learning from people and by working with people. By being a member of a club one learns to cooperate with other people. This is one of the most important things a person can learn, and our clubs are accomplishing this purpose.

Centralia Staff Choose Theme "Progress"

Mrs. Caviness, the Advisor of Centralia, is showing the staff how to draw a layout.

Mrs. Caviness and Editor Janice Cockman plan ahead in order to see that deadlines are met.

The task of managing the ad campaign and handling all that money has kept Business Manager Treva Beal busy.

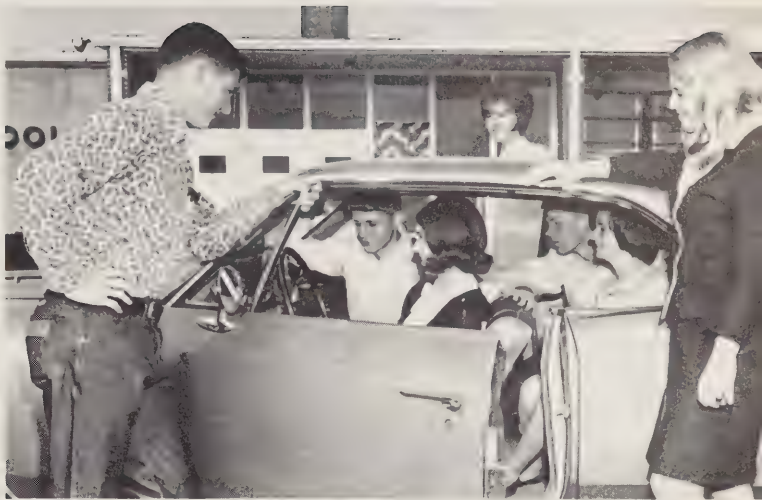

Betty Sue Maness, Assistant Editor, has lost something else.

Two of our star players, Ted Moody and Sue Brown, worked very hard on the sports section of our annual.

The money Larry Harris, Treva Beal, Spurgeon Moore, Ruby Cheek, Harold Councilman, Annie Lee Millican, Sandy King, raised by selling ads make our 1967-68 Centralia possible.

The activities editors, Zeb James and Gerry Phillips, arrange students for their club pictures.

No wonder Earl Baldwin and Ola Mae Beal's section of the Centralia was late.

Janis Fesmire and Joy Phillips, feature editors, arrange flowers for queens.

News Edited by Bear Facts Staff

The editor of the Bear Facts, Joy Phillips, makes plans for another edition.

As fast as the news happens, reporters send it to the editor.

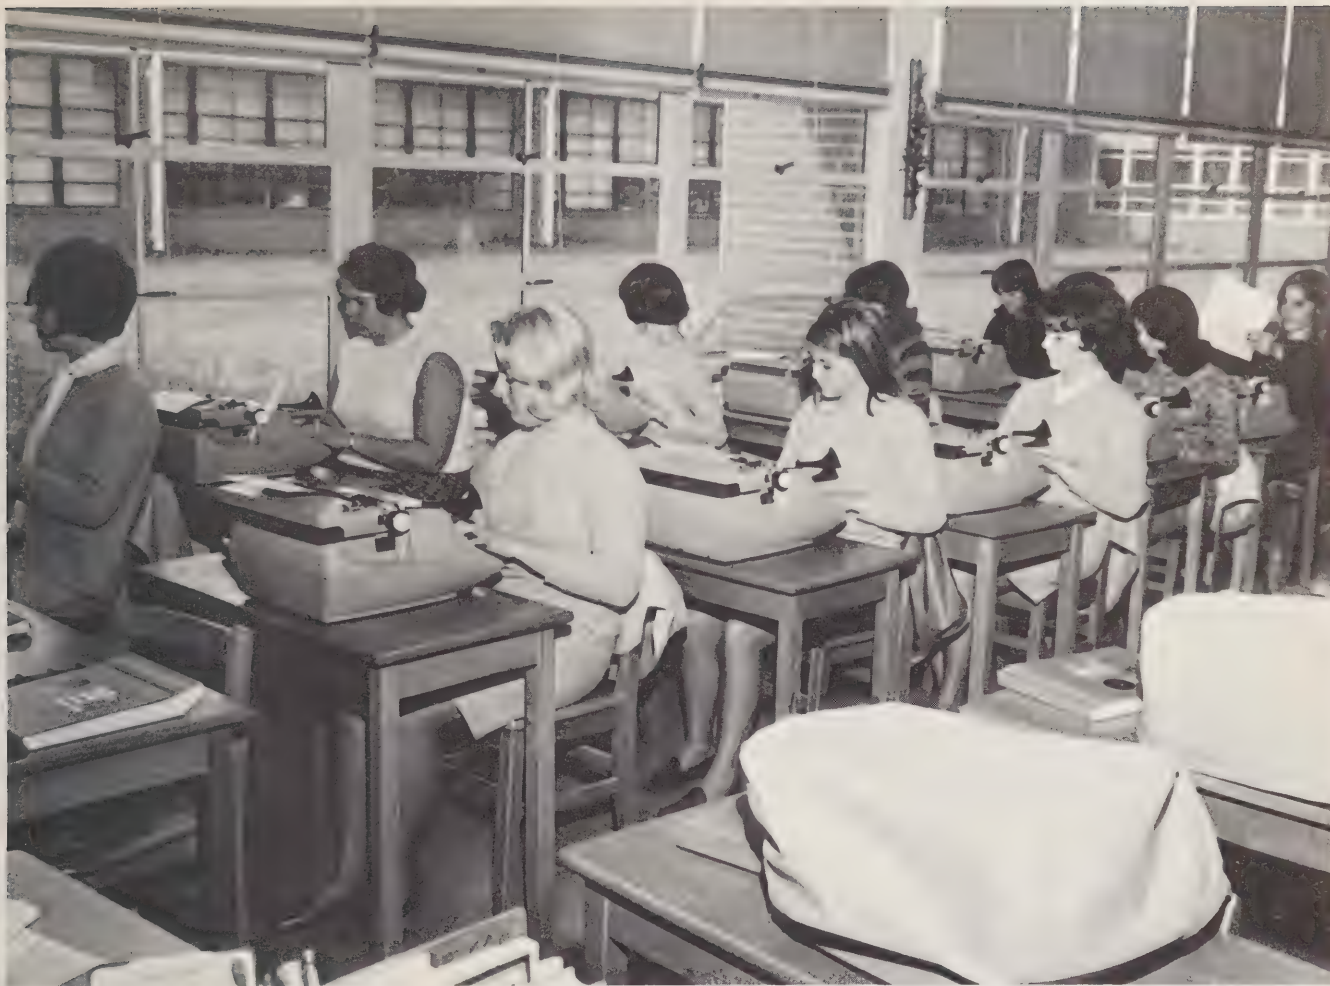

Becky Teague, Sandra Joyce, and Debbie Couch mimeograph pages.

The advisors, Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Huneycutt, proofread the paper.

The typing staff for the Bear Facts works hard to send those pages to press.

Lunch period has added appeal on newspaper publication dates.

Drawing the cover for the newspaper is Sue's specialty.

Student Council Serves as a Mediator

The Student Council listen as President Earl Baldwin discusses plans for the year.

What do President Baldwin and Advisor Burns have hidden in the duffle bag?

The Student Council wait for Secretary Janice Cockman, who is late again.

These are our hall monitors. Is running over them the right way to keep students out of the halls'

The Honor Council listens to the heartbreaking plea of the defendant.

Academic Achievement Merits Recognition

Beta Club members are chosen on the basis of outstanding academic work, character, and leadership. Miss Dottie Shugart, sponsor, supervised a sale of candy as the project to raise money for the Beta Convention. A service activity of the club has been helping with the special education class at our school. Members have assisted by teaching them songs, helping them read and write, and playing with them.

Miss Shugart, President Betty Maness, and the other officers are proud of the Beta emblem.

As Does Athletic Ability

Anyone who has earned a letter in sports is eligible to belong to the Monogram Club. The coaches decide when a person has contributed enough to a sport to gain this letter. The Monogram Club sponsors such events as Homecoming, Student-Teacher Game, Red-White Game, and Christmas Dance. The advisor is Coach Kitchings.

President Sue Brown keeps the Monogram Club's officers cheerful but busy (inspired, of course, by Coach Kitchings).

FHA Molds Homemakers

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of girls who are interested in home-making and who strive to improve the school, and community, as well as themselves. Under the excellent advising of Mrs. Virginia Fitts, the F.H.A. sponsors several activities during the year, such as the Mother-Daughter Banquet, and attends the state and district rallies. They combine fun and laughter with work to make their organization successful.

Mrs. Fitts and President Treva Beal discuss the F.H.A. problems with the other officers.

FFA Molds Farmers

The Future Farmers of America is an organization designed to start boys out as farmers and to improve those who are already farming. Boys are encouraged to be thrifty and to cooperate with other farmers for the good of all farming. The motto of the F.F.A. is "Doing to Learn, Learning to Do, Earning to Live, Living to Serve." Our Chatham Central Chapter strives to fulfill these pruposes.

Mr. Smith and President Zeb James discuss the Parliamentary Procedure contest with the other officers.

Bus Drivers Serve Responsibility

These are the people who drive us to school every day. These are the people we trust our lives with. It pays to walk!

Library Club Promotes Study

Miss Evans talks to her people about the L-i-b-r-a-r-y.

All Set for a Concert

Thirty-seven students were able to schedule Glee Club as a class this year. Since it meets every day, it offers a unit's credit to members who meet the requirements of the director, Miss Polly Yow.

Regular attendance, attentiveness, practice, and patience are perhaps paramount among these requirements. In addition, the chorus travels to various places to give scheduled concerts.

Debaters Can Argue Legally

The members of the Debating Club talk for hours just to establish one point.

Scientific Notation: $2+3=11_4$ _____

According to the Math Club, the best way to pass a math course is to play with strings.

C-E-N-T-R-A-L! Let's Go!

The newly-organized Bear Boosters' Club promotes school spirit and helps the cheerleaders yell at the ball games. Membership is determined by initiative and interest in the school athletic program. Bear Boosters travel to the away games as well as attending the home games to support the teams.

The advisor, Mr. Auman, and President Ted Moody have sports' talent and enthusiasm among the members of the Bear Boosters.

A Meal in the Making

The lunchroom staff provides us with the most enjoyable time of day.

Good food, good meat, yum—yum, let's eat!

Sports

Sports at Chatham Central may not be the best, but the athlete puts together his potential, physical agility, and strength with mental alertness for athletic achievement. With the desire to train and perform for his school in athletic contests, the student develops skills, maintains physical fitness, and practices good sportsmanship. With the support of cheerleaders and spectators, any team will do its best, win or lose.

They Cheered . . . and Cheered . . . and Cheered

The cheerleaders are always coming up with some new cheers and keep the school spirit up at all times. They cheer us on to victory—and even in defeat, they never “let up.”

How long did it take to learn this?

B-E-A-T, Beat 'em!

Practice makes perfect.

What d'ya say, Bears? Go! Fight! Win!

The Cheerleaders seem to have plenty of pep.

It must be half time.

We Had the Talent, but . . .

The 1967-68 season was not the best ever, but was still an improvement over last year's. At least two victories over Pittsboro are nothing to sneer at! The boys might not have come out on top in all of the games...but they were in there fighting at all times.

Gossip session between Coach Scott, Coach Leigh, and Coach Kitchings.

Hey! Where's that blocking?

All right boys! Let's break it up.

The Bear Team awaits instructions of how to play their next game.

Hold it! There's enough for everyone.

How'd We Manage to Lose So Many?

Practicing under game situations helps out in the game.

Halfback Cecil Walters trying his luck at running the ball.

Come on, boys...How about a little help.

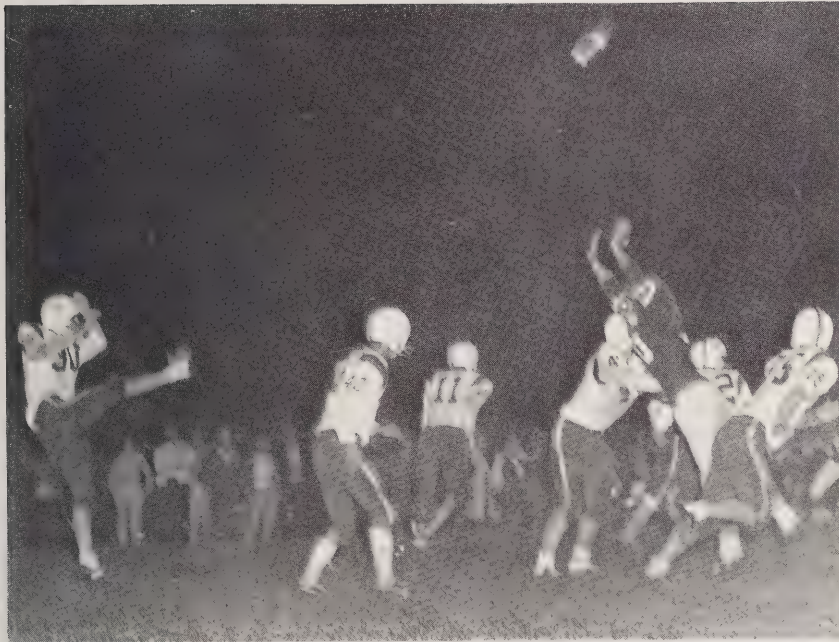

Halfback Jack Caudle on an end sweep with plenty of blockers out front.

Exercise and practice builds J.V.'s into "Bears of tomorrow."

Punter Robert Merritt, behind excellent blocking, gets off another booming punt.

Striving, Fighting, Winning and Being Good Sports

Coach Kitchings' favorite words seem to be "Wake up and quit horsing around!"

Co-Captain Sue Brown keeps her man out, but where did that girl come from?

Debbie Couch is beginning to wonder if the ball is going to come her way.

Whoopie-do!! Another Victory!

Guard Hollis Wilson prepares to spring for the rebound.

Co-Captain Treva Beal and guard Ethel Broaddus shift into the well-balanced zone defense.

Bears Keep Fighting Back

Bears go high for the rebound.

Tri-Captain Gerry Phillips receives the pass

Coach Leigh reminds the boys to set up their offense.

Fight for rebound between Bears and Jordan Matthews Phantoms.

Tri-Captain Ted Moody shoots over opponent while Tri-Captain Larry Harris looks on.

Opponent shoots over Donnie Brafford and Gerry Phillips.

Hey man! I've got it! Way to jump, William!

The Junior Bears

Jr. Varsity works hard preparing for the varsity of tomorrow.

Good defense keeps the opponent from scoring.

Keep the Ball Rolling

Joseph Brady—out rebounds his opponents.

Joey Goldston goes high for the shot.

The Bears of the Future

First Row: Ricky Beal, Rickie Jones, Randy Andrews, Ronnie Lowe, Ralph Leonard, Melvin Brady. Second Row: Jerry Teague, Wayne Garner, Ronnie Cheek, Carlton Brady, Ukie Hallman, Bill

Moody. Back Row: Van Welch, Eddie Harris, Charlie Marsh, Joey Goldston, Leo Marsh, Ronnie Joyce, Joseph Brady.

With Spring A New Team Blossoms

With spring, a mad new fever takes hold. It's baseball fever! The varsity has to run-run-run in order to be in top condition. Hard practices are the first step to victories.

A little before-game-strategy helps.

The perfect bunt.

One has to hit the dirt occasionally.

Not quite fast enough!

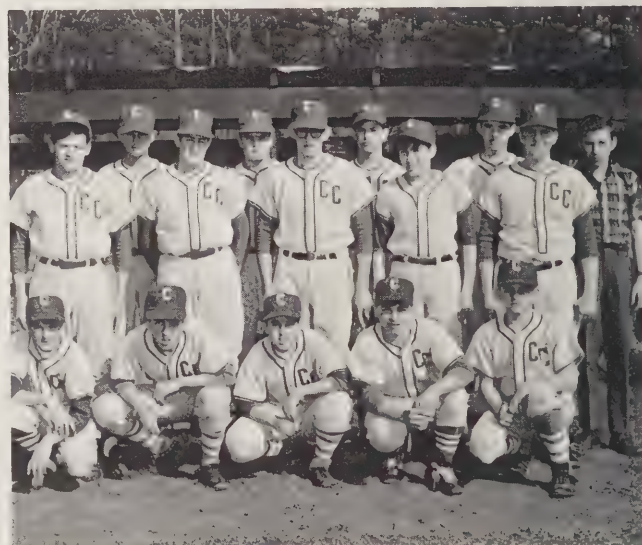

Coach Scott knows how to handle every pitch.

Coach Davis's motto: "Keep in front of the ball."

Coach Burgwyn tells the techniques of playing the outfield.

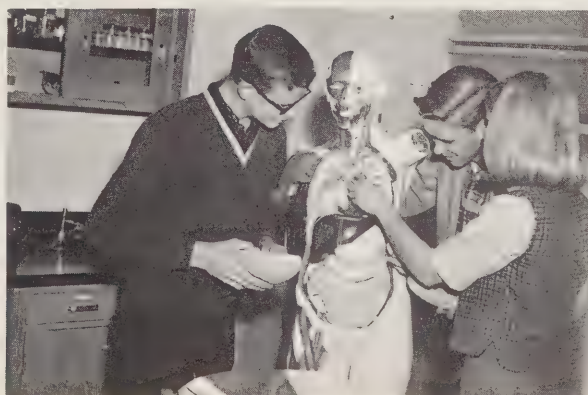

"Just wait till we play varsity ball!"

Classes

This year marks a decade of progress at Chatham Central High. Partly responsible for this progress is a sense of pride in the school generating from her student body. After all, the vital link in a strong school is the students themselves.

Beginning in the summer months, students on the ad staff tried their luck at salesmanship. That long awaited moment - the arriving of our class rings!

Are these the bus drivers who are constantly telling their passengers to sit down and behave???

We often wonder what the future holds for us.

Could this possibly be part of our football team?

Dear

Kind of odd. I'm coming from you know what: GIRLS. But I'm a girl and to tell someone that I'm a girl is a bit odd. I'm a girl and I'm a girl and I'm a girl.
Good luck at school.

A friend of mine

Long time

(P.S. I'm a girl and I'm a girl and I'm a girl and I'm a girl.)

Long,

It has been nice playing ball with you all these years. If you ever need any help at all we sports are concerned, be sure and let me know and I will help you. Best of luck

Bob Thomas

Derry,
I have really enjoyed having you as a friend, classmate, and teammate. Even though we didn't have a record to show it, but we did have a good time. May the best of luck be yours and God bless you.
A friend,
Zed

Derry,
I have enjoyed these past 3 years at Central with you. You are a swell guy to know. May the best come your way. I had hopes you and many your future be filled with success.
A friend,
Billieann

Derry,

All never forget all the great times we shared together, especially since we were freshmen. I'm glad we came to Central even though we had to leave part of our class. You've done a great job this year for Central. As far as sports are concerned you led the whole team in spirit and ability. Derry never change from your name, most little self and life will carry you far. Go on through life and bring everyone around you as much joy and fun as you have brought me since it's been up. Love you.
Billieann

Derry,
I hope but you always have the best luck. A nice boy like you really deserves the best life has to offer.

Good luck for

Derry,

When it comes to writing in your annual for last time, I don't know quite what to say. You're a great person to have for a friend and I have benefited from your friendship.
May life treat you fair and always make you happy. You deserve the best of everything.

a friend always,
Ola Mae

Youngster

Thompson & Son. Good Luck.

Love will be given with mercy,

And now, & for ever. Your Love and affection to me. Good night. Love and affection to me.

Love and affection to me. Good night. Love and affection to me.

Love and affection to me. Good
